Allowable Subject Matter

- Claims 23-34 are allowed.
- 2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
- 3. The prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a liquid crystal display having a plurality of pixels, comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically wherein each pixel is divided into a plurality of domains, the domains being distinguished by an average alignment direction of liquid crystal molecules included therein when an electric field is applied to the liquid crystal material, wherein, on average, liquid crystal molecules located at an edge of the domains are aligned symmetrically to each other with respect to a boundary of the domains, and wherein the polarizing directions of the polarizing plates are neither parallel nor perpendicular to at least one of the average alignment directions of the liquid crystal molecules of the domains.
- 4. Applicant filed a terminal disclaimer on 08/16/04 to overcome the double patenting rejection based on USPAT 6,704,083, which has been approved.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
